PRÉSENTATION

Tu Vi makes it possible to build the astral chart of a native and to carry out a very advanced interpretation (More than a hundred pages) from the different methods of structural and prospective analysis.

STRUCTURAL ANALYSIS

To understand how structural analysis works, it is necessary to provide some clarification on the basics of Chinese Astrology. The construction of a theme is mainly based on the Chinese sexagesimal calendar. It is a Luni-Solar calendar that allows to know with accuracy the quality of the relations of the energy flows of the World and an individual at each moment. It is through the analysis of this relationship that it is possible to infer the states of being during one's life.

In Far Eastern thought, energy cycles are seen as the sequence of two main cycles: one internal and deep based on the doctrine of the five elements, the other external and superficial based on the doctrine of the six energies. As all that manifests is a fluctuating expression between the Yin and Yang Poles, the five elements will be discriminated into ten terms called Trunks (5 YIN Trunks and 5 YANG TRUNKS) and the six energies will be discriminated into 12 terms called BRANCHES. Thus is born the sexagesimal prototype cycle (60 terms) which is the combination of 10 trunks and 12 branches.

This prototype cycle is declined according to four temporalities:

- Annual (a 60-year cycle is a complete cycle for a human being)
- Monthly (a year is divided into 12 lunations, with an intercalary moon for years with 13 lunations)
- Daily
- Schedule, (a day is divided into 12hours Chinese, they are worth 2 of the Western hours).

A mythical date of great symbolic significance, set at the 61st year of the reign of Emperor Houang Ti, marks the end of a perfect cycle and marks the starting point of the sequence of cycles of 60 terms according to the 4 temporalities.

These sequences make it possible to characterize the cosmic cycles and to be able to determine how the emergence of a being is located within them.

The moment when a being enters the dance of the world, makes him inherit the qualities of the moment of the unfolding of the sexagesimal cycles of the four temporalities. This outlines the founding principles of Chinese Astrology.

Tu Vi, is able to calculate the Chinese calendar, determine the position of astral indicators according to traditional Far Eastern astrological science and give the first elements of the structure of a native, which are:

- The major group characterizing belonging to one of the three major types of human nature: Royal/Warrior/Civilian,
- The 4 Pillars of the 4 prototype sexagesimal cycles (Year, month, day, hour) of the moment of birth. Like what:

Each indicator embodies a set of intrinsic qualities that will be declined according to the 12 aspects (called Palaces) of the constitutional structure of an individual: Personality, Kinship, Individuality, Possession, Work, Entourage, Social Life, Health, Finances, Offspring, Love, Collateral.

Each astral indicator will define a trend in relation to one of the 12 aspects. In addition, the conjunction of several indicators will sometimes have extremely strong meanings.

Thus Tu Vi, is able to give a fairly fine interpretation for each of the 12 individual sectors.

ABOUT SELECTING A CITY OF BIRTH

When the date of birth of the native is a legal time, it is necessary to make a correction of this time in relation to the place of birth. Indeed, the legal time is a time defined with respect to a reference meridian. It is therefore necessary to know the position of the city of birth to calculate time difference with respect to this meridian.

To enter a city, click on the button indicated below:

Meanings of Personality Sector

Metaphysical Meanings of the Sector:
 This sector describes the metaphysical plane of the individual. It is the will of the parcel of the Universal Being which moves the individual and which the traditions call Personality.
 This sector is part of the central structure of the being which can be seen as a quaternary, or even as a Manifested Ternary added to its principle which gives it its two fundamental movements: Intellectual (association of ideas) and Corporeal (physical life). This ternary is the following: Association of ideas-Soul-Body. Brought back to the very contingent domain of ordinary life, this ternary becomes: Parents-Chance (Ancestors)-Possession. It may surprise that there is such a difference in statement, but the analytical processes make that the microcosm is

The information returned is therefore:

- The general meaning of the celestial body flown over (primary, secondary, tertiary), for example:

Positioning: Primary

Quality: Yin

Nature: splendour

Direction: North

Metaphysical Aspects of the Star:

To achieve the metaphysical realization of the being it is necessary to bring together in more or less perfect proportions Wisdom, Strength and Beauty. Virgo is the star of the Warrior group (the Temporal Power) which is the one who can unite these three attributes with the most perfection and lead to the full fulfillment of the initiation. However, it lacks, perhaps, that patience (because of the nervousness of individuals marked by Virgo) that is necessary for perfect wisdom.

Appearance of the star in the sector

This is the best configuration that can be found. The couple full of ambition has a good social situation and lives in happiness and ease.

- The comment on the meaning of the bar, for example:

Barred/Nothingness as Crossed out /Cut is a particular star for several reasons.

On the one hand Barré/Néant always straddles two palaces, on the other hand Barré/Néant exerts its influence directly on the other stars and not on the person. The effect is indirect.

The stars under the effect of the bars, see their beneficial or evil influences reversed or canceled.

The star Barred / Nothingness exerts an action of annihilation. It brakes, prevents, slows down, dampens, opposes, the stars being in the two palaces it occupies.

However, its power is not evenly distributed over the two palaces. Indeed, its strongest action (about 70 percent) is exercised etc.

- Analysis of the complete aspect of the sector, with:
 - the description of what the sector represents, how the bars act on the sector and the stars presents, how to interpret the sector when there are no major celestial bodies (those placed in the center), for example:

This sector gives indications of the descendants of the person studied. Number of children, his relationships that one is likely or better to have with them, but also with his grandchildren, great-grandchildren, etc., adopted children, stepchildren.

Without major stars:

To interpret this scenario, use the major stars of the Possession Palace.

Crossed out:

If the palace Offspring is barred, it means that the first child is difficult to raise. This configuration also indicates that there is no agreement between parents and children, leading them to live separately as soon as conditions permit.

- astral interpretation of the area, for example:

Meaning given by the primary stars:

Seven Swords, dance (Mercury):

This configuration is not conducive to procreation. Several things can be the cause, low fertility, sterility, non-desire. Maybe a child anyway, but he may have a physical or mental disability.

Meanings given by secondary and tertiary stars:

Strikethrough/None

The palate Offspring is barred, this means that the first child is difficult to raise. This configuration also indicates that there is no agreement between parents and children, leading them to live separately as soon as conditions permit.

The estimated number of children must be halved.

Right-wing endorsements

This star alone has less probable meanings than if Aides de Gauche and Appuis de Droite were united. Add 3 children to the first estimate. There is a very good chance that there is a gifted person among the children.

Power

Configuration less strong than if Success, Power, Fortune were combined. This configuration is a sign that children are intelligent, rich and honorable. It brings protection, wealth, happiness and delivers influences from the evil stars.

Beloved

- the interpretation of the complex combinations of the stars of the sector with those in opposition, trine and alloy, for example:

Period combination(s)

4: Dance (Mercury),Dissertation,Dissertation,Discourse,Left Helpers,Right Supports,Power:

The beneficial effect of Dance (Mercury) is fully expressed. Considerable gains assured.

5: Dance (Mercury):

Analysis based on the method of decades.

When you have chosen a prospective date of study, when you refresh the theme the years are displayed in the palaces as follows: <TU-YYYY,GG> where TU=Chinese age (in Tuoi), YYYY is the year and AG=age of the person.

Note: Decades are calculated and placed regardless of the date of study (from 01/01/300 to 31/12/9999). So it is possible to know the 'active' decade of a person, before his birth and after his death.

For more details on the decades consult the books of Vo Van Em & François Villée and Nguyen Ngoc Rao (see bibliography).

Analysis based on the portal method.
 You must first have entered the date of your study in the main toolbar. Then, when you refresh the theme, 4 rectangles of different color and thickness are displayed. They determine the palaces concerned by.

We see above, the 4 portals highlighted by the date and time of study. The latter is recalled in green in the central box of the theme.

How do I read portals?

The gates take the color of the element to which they are associated (Wood=Green, Fire=Red, Earth=Yellow, Metal=Light Blue, Water=Black).

To locate the portal of the year, look for the one with the thickest frame and the one containing an A at the top left.

To locate the portal of the month, we look for the one with a slightly thinner frame and containing an M and top right. It includes the indication Month (x) mmmmmmyy yyyy represented in color, bold and italics. In parentheses (x) represents the number of the month in the Chinese year.

To locate the portal of the day and the hour we proceed in the same way.

Note: The months of a Chinese horoscope are lunar months (For more details see the book "True Chinese Astrology".). As a result, you will notice that the portal of the month contains the date of the beginning of the lunar month and that of the end of the lunar month. In the same way, Chinese years are determined according to lunations. You will therefore find in the portal of the year the date of the beginning of the year studied and that of the following year (For more details consult the book "The True Chinese Astrology".).

AUTOMATIC INTERPRETATION OF THE HOROSCOPE

FOREWORD

Tu Vi is finally equipped with a real interpretation module, based on the method of Vo Van Em and François Villée, explained in their book "The True Chinese Astrology".

It makes it possible to constitute a very complete file with several levels of interpretation and several axes of analysis. However, no software, however sophisticated, will be able to replace a 'manual' analysis and the consultation of the works that we report below seems irreplaceable and essential to us.

Recommended books

- ♦ La Véritable Astrologie Chinoise, Vo-Van-Em et François Villée, les éditions Traditionnelles.
 - ♦ Votre santé par l'Horoscope Chinois, Dr Alain Bréant, Ediru.
 - ♦ Les 111 énergies cosmiques et la loi du Karma, Jenny Mai Ngo et Patrick Alliard,
 - ♦ Astrologie Chinoise Authentique, Nguyen Ngoc Rao, Editions du Dauphin
- See also the complete bibliography at the end of this guide.*

In addition, it is necessary to penetrate Chinese thought to have a more accurate view of the content of the comments that are given by Tu Vi. For this there are two authors whose contribution is of paramount importance. They are Jacques-André LAVIER;

· Uranologie Chinoise, aux éditions Maloine.

See also the complete bibliography at the end of this guide.

as well as the Dr Serge DESPORTE :

· L'Homme sous le ciel, aux éditions du Cosmogone.

See also the complete bibliography at the end of this guide.

The first book is a more scholarly and serious research on what was Chinese Uranology (astronomy) at its origin. The erudition of the author makes it possible to situate this Chinese science in its true original context.

The second book is a deciphering of the text of the "Nei Tching Sou Wen" which is the reference treatise on Chinese medicine. Based on the study of ideograms, hexagrams and different symbols of the Far Eastern tradition, it highlights the extraordinary power of traditional thought to take us into the depths of Chinese cosmology.
